

iHola! Churros™

Crave the Joy

Say Hello to ¡Hola! Churros™! An exciting new name in the food world that captures the playful magic and simple cinnamon flavor that only churros bring. Born from the colorful streets of Spain, churros are a global treat that inspire curiosity and create memories. We are proud to present a variety of delicious 51% whole grain churros to reimagine your menus.

The header features the iHola! Churros logo in orange and brown, with the tagline "Crave the Joy" in yellow. The background is white with several golden-brown churros scattered around, some filled with red raspberry jam and others with light brown cinnamon filling. A decorative border with a repeating pattern of brown and yellow shapes separates the header from the main text.
